

Dynamic Metal Services Quality, Environmental, Health and Safety Policy

Dynamic Metal Services is committed to responsibly processing and recycling various grades of scrap metals in a manner that protects the environment, our clients and our community and ensures our worker's health and safety,

- Dynamic Metal Services is committed to continual improvement and meeting our customer requirements.
- Dynamic Metal Services is committed to protecting the environment, including prevention of pollution and prevention of injury and ill health.
- Dynamic Metal Services is committed to comply with applicable legal and other stakeholder requirements relative to the quality, environmental and health and safety aspects of our business.
- Dynamic Metal Services is committed to providing a framework for setting and reviewing quality, environmental, health and safety goals.
 - Dynamic Metal Services is committed to continuous improvement achieved through monitoring of goals and rigorous evaluation of our management system.
 - Dynamic Metal Services is committed to communicating and reinforcing this policy throughout our company, to all persons working for or on behalf of the organization as well as, to our customers, our suppliers and to the public.

Brian Ducovna, CEO/President

11/13/2020
Date

Ben Henson, COO/President

1/13/20
Date